

WINDY NOOK NEWS

LOCAL BOY CAPTURES GHOST

SUB-HEADLINE

ANTHONY

Thomas Kepme [the ghost] was finally captured today by James Harrogate. He told us that it was haunting him for months and he finally decided to stop him. “It all started when he wrought on my chalk board outside of the house,” he exclaimed. “It then carried on a week later with him writing on my sister’s prescription. Then another week later he wrote on my mirror,” James said. He also said that he got the blame for everything that Thomas Kempe had done. “I tried to tell my Mam but she wouldn’t believe me and said it was just another one of my tricks. “One night, I went to bed and my lamp flung across the room and I instantly sat up to see what it was and then my notebook came flying at my face. I just managed to leap out of bed before I could get hit. All of a sudden, my pen came towards me and hit me in the chest. I screamed at Thomas but he wouldn’t listen; he just kept throwing things around my room. But when my parents came in he dropped everything and flung my duvet at my face so it

James’ family’s house

He also told us that when he got home him and Simon set up the plan. He said that he put red paint above the door so that they could see him when he walked around. They also put flour on the floor so that they could also see his footsteps. They both waited in James’ room until it was time. When it was time they pretended that they were asleep. All of a sudden, the door opened and the paint fell on Thomas Kempe and the ghost exterminator took Thomas away. James now lives peacefully with his family.

looked like I had done everything,” exclaimed James. The next morning, James told us that he went to go see his best friend Simon to tell him everything. “At first he didn’t believe me but I managed to convince him.” He also told us that they thought of a plan for hours.
---	--	--