

WINDY NOOK NEWS

A GHOST TERRORISES A FAMILY

Little boy things that a ghost is a ghost living in his house

BY MR B. W

In a quiet village called Ledsham, there is a boy (James Harrison, aged 10), who claims he is being haunted. That young boy might be the first person to find a ghost. Burt Ellison, respected local builder, was a kind bloke. He said, “I catch ghosts all the time but not ones that write messages to people! Thomas Kempe (the ghost) is one of the smartest I’ve known - me and my dad were like ghost hunters.”

They told us all about how they tried to catch the ghost. They said it failed. They used a glass bottle and eight candles. After when he never wanted to go in the bottle.

Burt Ellison decided he was going to touch his pipe (like a cigarette). After he done that Thomas Kempe didn't like it he came in he took out 6 candle and then 2 went blue James thought it worked. Two minutes later they went out. James asked “Did it work.” Burt Ellison replied with “no he didn't want to go in.” James asked if they could try again. Burt Ellison nodded his head left to right.

12 Est End Cottage Ledsham

This is Windy Nook News at East End Cottage in ledsham going to see the 10 year old victim that is getting hunted by 300 year old Thomas Kemp.Where heading to 12 East End Cottage the time 4:27 pm and were here with James. James why are you the predator to this ghost? James replied with “I don't really know how I’m just the target i think it might be because i touched his pipe.” Bert Ellison do you have a brilliant idea? “I got a brilliant idea but I don't know if it will work.”

Bert Ellison what will you and James do next? “Well me and the boyo will have a trap for him soon and I don't think he knows this one.”

This is a spoken time all of the readers should know what is going on in ledsham now and everyone should know what James is going through and now he met the ghost hunter.