BY REPORTER DAN

The boy called James Harrison realised there was a ghost haunting his house, when strange things started happening. The ghost was causing trouble for James, everything the ghost would do James would get told off for the exact same thing. One time the priest came over and the ghost spilt his tea all over his top and James got the blame for it.

James - We asked James if he had actually seen the ghost but he hasn't. We also asked if he knew what to do about the ghost and he said he knew a man called Bert who was a ghost hunter. Bert said he would capture

Bert Foster - We asked Bert how he would capture the ghost. Bert said "I will try and lure him in with some goo, into a special ghost machine, that will keep him there till we let him out." So we asked him what he would do when he captures the ghost and Bert said "I will take him to another country to pester another town."

Have you got rid of ghosts before and how did you do it?

"Yes I have multiple times but I must not share how."

Mrs Harrison and her son James

James' Mum - We asked James' mum why she never believed James and she said "I never believed James because he is a young boy, with a wild imagination." So then we asked her what if ghosts were real and she said she would forgive him.

the ghost. We asked James what the ghost had been doing to him?
James replied saying
“The ghost has been causing all sorts of mayhem which always ends up getting me into trouble. So I decided to enroll the help of a Specialist in ghost hunting, Bert. So we interviewed Bert to see what he could do.

What inspired you to become a ghost hunter?
“It was when I was little, a ghost haunted my house. The ghost in my house became so disruptive so we had to find a way to get rid of him.”

Lastly we interviewed Mrs Harrison, James' Mother to see what her thoughts are on the ghostly goings on in Rose Cottage.

Why do you not believe in ghosts?
Mrs Harrison replied
“I just think that it's impossible for someone to come back to life [from the dead] and be invisible.”
We will keep you posted if anymore ghostly things go on in Windy Nook.
