HEADLINE

By Harry

Recently rumours had been spread around the neighbourhood about a strange ghost?

This ghost is known for smashing a vase,slamming doors,writing on things ect.

However I have Simon here who will be telling us all about these mysterious events. “So simon how did it all start?”

“It all started with a black board James mum was selling fresh yummy apples until me and james walked by and saw very strange writing, he also told me the next day he had woken up to writing on his mirror which led to more serious actions from the ghost”. “Addition to that James went for a dig and found these old artifacts and I'm guessing this is how it all started because of them”.

“Ok do you think you will ever see the ghost or possibly capture it?”.

“I have never actually seen this ‘ghost’ however I think James is either pulling a huge prank or he’s telling the truth but back to the question I think it could be possible to catch him if we had a good team of investigators or equipment, such as EVP’s, voice recorders EMF readers and inf-red cameras.

If you would like to either meet or follow this case up please contact 0191848328.

The following is a note that James had actually found in his garden

Though youe has found mye hidden treasure take good care as i will plead further moree shalle succeed.

Even James himself doesn't understand this weird poem. Who knows what it could mean?

INSERT PICTURE CAPTION

The House you are seeing is currently where the ghost lies no one shall either investigate nor shall they go near or enter the house.

We have another eye witness to interview, his name is Bert. He is the one who has attempted to catch this ghost however has not succeeded in his action.

“Hello everyone my name is Bert as you all know i tried to catch this ghost the only reason i did not succeed was because of him,the ghost is very powerful.It will take time and skill to catch that one it's also known as a poltergeist,they are the most dangerous and active kind they are pretty much capable of doing anything a human can do”

That is all from Harry Bell as i said before you can contact the number below to follow up this interesting yet spooky and chilling case....
