It has been just a few days since something very unusual was reported. James Harrison, a boy who now lives at East End Cottage, claims a ghost is currently haunting this town. We asked him a few questions about how this happened and when. We now know that this ghost [Thomas Kempe] escaped from East End Cottage several weeks ago, he has threatened James into being his apprentice and left him unusual misspelt notes. "He keeps knocking over all the pots!" the boy complained.

Mrs Harrison, James' mum, said,"I love my son, but I think he might be going a bit mad."
She also explained how this was ridiculous and there was no need for it to be reported.
"It's obvious that he's just making this up so his punishments will end. I mean, who wouldn't if they already had no supper and no pocket money." she explained.

Simon, one of James' friends, mentioned that, and I quote, "This whole ghost thing has been going on for way too long. It's either he can't get rid of him, or he's just having a laugh."

This Thomas Kempe is a very suspicious and awkward person, we definitely have some questions for him, that is if he's real. Apparently, he's targeting James but no one quite knows why.

A mischievous ghost has been reported by a young boy living at East End cottage. Could this be true?

As well as knocking over pots and leaving strange notes, he has also demanded that we must not do our jobs for he claims they're his and he must continue them single handedly. Also, he has just recently destroyed the hospital and put up flyers saying he is back and doing his work, at East End Cottage.

James wants to get rid of this ghost as soon as possible so has called in Bert, a professional in the ghost catching business, who will attempt to capture him by using rituals and also making it want to leave by making him annoyed and frustrated.

Now that we know all this information, all we can do is hope that the future of this small town in Ledsham will be safe, or if there will be one at all.
