The quiet village of Ledsham, was in uproar yesterday after claims were made by a local boy (James Harrison, aged 10) that he is being haunted by a sorcerer from the eighteenth century. Could he be telling the truth? Or are these the claims of a mischievous school boy?

It has been reported that the mysterious ghost has been harassing a young 10 year old for a week now. Why would he be doing this? There has been vases smashing, notes left around and rooms being trashed. What is wrong with this ghost? James decided to get Burt Ellison (a ghost catcher) to catch the ghost.

A young boy, named James, is the victim of the sorcerer, who gave an exclusive interview about the boy's claim.

MR Ellison confirmed that he supports James and believes in ghosts. James, (Mrs Harrison's son) said why is this stupid ghost torturing me! Why always me! Me and Burt are going to get this mad ghost out of our house and he will never bother me again.

Burt Ellison rushed into the interview and declared, "I believe in ghosts so should you."

Simon, James' best friend, does not yet believe in James's claim because he has never seen the ghost in action. He also noted that James is my best friend in all but I need to see it to believe it. Simon stated I only believe in ghosts when I'm near James and mysterious things happen but when I'm at my house or at school I do not believe in ghosts but I will always stick up for James.

After several weeks of investigation, it has been reported that Burt and James were celebrating because they have caught celebrating because they have caught the ghost. After All, there must have been a ghost and James shouted. I'm free. Now Bert has caught over 51 ghosts.
