

The Daily Prophet

YOU-KNOW-WHO IS WHO-KNOWS-WHERE

By Christopher, lead Daily Prophet reporter

On 31st October 31st 1981, You-Know-Who was defeated by a young boy named Harry Potter. On Halloween night, he arrived at Godrics Hollow and Killed Lily and James potter. Somehow, Harry survived. Currently, it is unknown why You-Know-Who wanted to kill them or how Harry Potter Survived.

After people heard that You-Know-Who is gone, we celebrated in public wearing colourful cloaks. Crazyly, some groups were even hugging muggles. "Every witch and wizard needs to be celebrating!" an overjoyed Mr Headturn told us.

This is You-Know-Who.

Funnily, we confused the muggles and even made it onto their news. On the news report, it mentioned shooting stars in Kent even though it was only us casting spells. Also, it mentioned the owls but we were only sending messages. "We need to be careful we keep the Wizing World a secret," Professor Eggcorn told The Daily Prophet.

Since You-Know-Who is gone, the Wizing World is peaceful after a long time. Amazingly, Harry Potter is famous even though he is a baby. There will be many book about him. "Even though I am upset that Lily and James Potter were murdered, that was a price to pay for killing You-Know-Who," Professor Dumbledore told us.