YOU-KNOW-WHO IS WHO-KNOWS-WHERE

By Miss Hollie Star Reporter

On the 31st of October 1981 You-Know-Who was finally defeated by young Harry Potter. Two days ago on halloween night, the deadly dark wizard arrived at the Potters house and committed to murder. Although the dark wizard is dead so are lilly and James Potter. Even worse the murder was at there house. He tried to kill the rest of the potters and it was unknown why he committed to the murders. He's gone. Know one knows where. But he couldn't kill harry.

Yesterday, when we found out You-Know-who is finally gone, so many people celebrated. In a lot of streets, massive groups of witches\wizards have been wearing long colorful cloaks and gathered together. Usually witches and wizards never hug muggles, but today was such a special day they did.”be nice and joyful day! I hope you think you are thinking the same to!” a witch said to our reporter on the street.

Humorously, our lovely celebrations made it on the muggles news yesterday night. Silly muggles all day usuall owl behaviorhoer the only thing we were doing was sending messages. All night, they thought the magic spark coming off our wands was shooting stars. While speaking to lilly wand , a muggle expert , she explained, “ we need to ensure our celebrationsdont give away the secret to the muggles.
