

THE DAILY PROFIT

YOU KNOW WHO WHO IS WHO KNOWS WHERE

By mason best reporter for the daily profit

On 31st October at Godricks hollow You Know Who arrived and killed Lily and James Potter but Harry survived . Although he was a baby he defeated You Know Who and destroyed his powers. It is still unknown how Harry defeated him.

Yesterday after you Know Who vanished people have been celebrating in the streets so happy they were even hugging muggles . There were large groups of witches and wizards with cloaks .

The celebrations confused the muggles because they thought the sparks of our wands were shooting stars . Also they complained of the owls acting weird but they were just delivering letters.

Everyone was shouting "peace because You know who is dead" There will many books about harry and he will be famous .
