Wizards gone wrong

By Ruby Grace amazing daily prophet

On the 31st October 1981, voldemort or you-know- who- Went to Qodric Hollow and killed Lily and James Potters. Or-you-know-who- tried to kill Harry Potter but didn't succeed as the result his power was gone then disappeared Harry Potter left with only a lightning star on the side of his forehead still till this day nobody -you-know-who committed the murder.

Yesterday,-You-Know-Who- lost their powers and suddenly disappeared so everybody got into a large group if they are in hufflepuff, slytherin, Gryffindor and lastly Ravenclaw suprisigly some witches and wizards hugged muggles . even though they don't like the muggles . everybody looked happy like they were gonna explode in happyness. He told us.

Before long, they were chuckling at going to muggles. The muggles looked like they were about to explode in confussenes . they also thought those parks were shooting stars or fireworks not making noise they were surprised that those sparks were fireworks or shooting stars

Thankfully -you-know-who- is gone Dumbledoor how did you feel Harry as a baby got rid of a very dangerous wizard . Dumbledore told our reporter he felt suprised and relieved also do you think it a good trade you-know-who- died and lily and james potter or not Dumbledoor told our reporter that yes so you- know- who- cant kill any more people.
